My School

All great men have been taught to read and write at their schools. It is our school that endows us with the right values at an early age. We learn a set of strong moral values that serve us later in our lives. School life is the period that makes up most of your childhood memories. We learn to laugh, cry, share, and support by co-habiting with our classmates. Schools are the framework that builds our moral characters and serves as a pathway that we must follow to achieve our dreams.

The initial years pass like a breeze and are the best years of our school life but, the advanced grades teach us that life is not always easy. We fail in tests, we stay awake at nights to finish assignments, we get scolded by teachers, but most importantly, we learn how to cope up with the hardships that life throws at us. Schools have a tremendous responsibility in shaping the minds of millions of young minds that are as soft as wet mud. The teachers are excellent potters who mould us so that the resultant figure is ready to bear the weight of life without cracking. Even if the later stages of school life feel like a burden, we must remember that our school's happiest times have been spent.

Friendship

Friendship is the most significant just as valuable endowments of life. Friendship is one of the most esteemed relationships. Individuals who have old buddies appreciate the most in their life. Genuine friendship depends on faithfulness and support. An old buddy is a person who will remain with you when challenges are out of control. A friend is somebody unique on whom you can depend on to praise every second. Friendship resembles an actual asset, and it can lead us to progress. Everything relies upon our decision on how we pick our friends. Selecting a real friend in your life can be a task. If you choose a bad companion, they can mislead you, but real friends will always guide you the right way.

The nature of friendship is necessary for our satisfaction. The advantages of true friendship stay long-life. Likewise, having a reliable friend circle additionally improves our fearlessness. True friendship can't be worked inside constrained limits like position or statement of faith. It gives us an inclination that somebody needs us, and we are not the only ones. This is genuine that a person can't live alone.

Generally, we make a companion with people who are of a similar age as our own. The same age gathering can allow you to share anything. Friendship is a connection that can make or break us in each phase of life. However, friendship is a precious advantage. It is likewise not all that simple to look after friendships. It requests your time just as endeavors. Last but not least, it is an elusive and genuine friendship; however, once you prevail in this relationship, you will make some brilliant memories. In return for that, a companion will need your significant time and trust.

My Best Friend

Friendship is an extraordinary gift in anyone's life. An individual gets to know various individuals during their life venture. Among these, we find types of people who have similar choices of taste and nature. We become close to that person and spend more time together. Step by step, a sort of relationship creates, which ends up leaving dependable impressions throughout one's life.

It means that the best relationship and friendship begin from here. These friends are pretty much family. You and your friends will share numerous things. You spend most of the time with your best friend. You share everything without exception with your companions.

I am, for sure fortunate to have my school companion, Kajal as my best friend even at this point. It started on the second day of my U.K.G class. I earned the closest companion of my life when I was only five years of age. I do accept that she is the best thing at any point in my life. She is still there as inspiration.

We played together, giggled together, cried together, grew up together, gained experiences together. Lastly, when fourteen years of school life came to an end, we said farewell and separated our ways.

Even though miles separated, we either call or send messages every day. We are connected by hearts and give time to each other. We talk about the occasions in our lives and cherish every minute together, think back to our past times, and miss each other.

Life proceeds with its fantastic journey, such a large number of close companions came all through my life, yet none substituted the sole position saved for my best friend, who remained close by during the back and forth movement of my little life.

Knowledge is Power

Knowledge is something that you can't subtract, and you can only add to the knowledge you already possess. Reading and learning is a way to increase your knowledge. There are so many activities that you do every day with the knowledge that you possess. Without the knowledge we possess, we wouldn't be able to do the same things we do daily.

You help the people around you and increase your knowledge as well as the other person's knowledge. Not all the people who are educated know because education is not something that guarantees knowledge. However, all the knowledgeable people are educated. There are millions of educated people, but they lack the knowledge of the subject they have studied.

Knowledge is something that keeps helping you understand the difference between right and wrong. It helps us to overcome the mistakes that we do. A person that possesses knowledge he is richer than a person who has no money and less knowledge. This powerful tool helps the nation too. With the knowledge that people have, they help in the development and growth of a country. The development of a nation doesn't depend on arms. It depends on the knowledge of the people or citizens of the country.

Girl Education

Girl education is an issue that needs our consideration. It is probably the most severe issue globally. Everybody realizes that education is the essential need of us all. Girls likewise need the education to run their life smoothly. We, as a whole need to comprehend our commitment to this issue and co-work.

Most importantly, we must be delicate to the future of ladies in our family. We should move in the direction of giving all the essential and propelled education to the little girls in our family. Likewise, we should not force them to marry, until they finish their education.

Numerous individuals can't educate their girls because of the absence of sufficient money. The amount of such people is the most in India. It's anything but a complex issue. We can expel it by giving fundamental education either at a low cost or free of cost. It will help girls in having essential education and will make them qualified to continue in this cruel world.

Each educated girl by one way or another makes some positive changes in society. She turns into a motivation for different young ladies just as young men too. She can give a better generation to the country. An educated girl comprehends her duties, and she works for the government assistance of each person in the public arena.

In current days, girls and ladies are adding to each field, including science, clinical, engineering, legislative issues, protection, social assistance, and numerous others. It has become conceivable simply because of the education of girls.
