RUSSIAN LANGUAGE COURSE

Russian, the widely spoken language in the world among people. The course aims at teaching you thousands of useful words and phrases, grammar as well as pronunciation. The updated vocabulary and cultural tips will help you to gain mastery in the language. To determine the level of knowledge in Russian, you need to pass an international Test of Russian as a Foreign Language (TORFL) exam.

BEGINNER LEVEL

A1 (Elementary level)- Minimum level of knowledge of the Russian language, enough for a limited number of situations in everyday life.

A2 (Basic level)- Starting level of knowledge of the Russian language enough to communicate in a limited number of everyday situations. This is the minimum level for operating any professional activity for a limited extent.

INTERMEDIATE LEVEL

B1 (ToRFL-I: the first level)- The average level of the Russian language, which allows you to communicate at home, educational and professional fields.

B2 (TORFL-II: the second level)- Sufficiently high level of knowing Russian language, which is enough for communication in all spheres of activity.

ADVANCED LEVEL

C1 (TORFL -III: third level)- With this level it is possible to conduct professional activity in Russian as the philologist, the translator, the editor, the journalist, the diplomat, the manager working in a Russian-speaking collective.

C2 (TORFL -IV: fourth level)- This level is comparable with the native speaker's level. Understand everything heard and read at ease.

Is Russian hard to learn?

Russian is widely believed to be one of the most difficult languages to learn. This is mostly true, if you have no knowledge of other Slavic languages (e.g. Bulgarian or Czech). The grammar rules in Russian are very complex and have numerous exceptions.

What level is fluent in Russian?

C2- Once you have reached this level, you are free to go in any direction: read Russian news, articles and books, listen to podcasts, watch Russian television and communicate with native speakers comfortably. It is the level of Native, or Bilingual proficiency.
