Benefits of learning the Urdu
Language

iB Language
Classes

While we are mentioning the many positives you can gain from learning Urdu, still a lot more benefits are forthcoming.

- ◆ Learning Urdu helps improve your cognitive abilities. It trains your brain and keeps it strong and healthy. The introduction of new grammatical rules, new vocabulary, new sentence structures and forming new words are good exercises for the brain.
- ◆ It increases your skills set. Globalization diminishes the boundaries among countries. In order to survive the new environment, it is important to improve your set of skills, to have a market edge and more job chances.
- ◆ As mentioned, India and Pakistan have rich histories and learning Urdu will open the doors to fascinating, mystical and intriguing cultures – from their age-old practices, traditions, values and norms. You'll be able to read classic literature from the 14th century. You could read over 4,000 journals, understand shows from 74 TV stations and 70 radio stations.
- ◆ Neuroscientists say that that the graphic structure and sound system that are unique to the Urdu language activates the front part of the brain. This helps improve your analytical skills and heighten your capacity for making decisions.
